

Could Irish 'Sopranos' boost ethnic fare?

2006-07-12

Highly touted Showtime drama 'Brotherhood' raises hopes of purveyors

"The Sopranos' has it all - the thuggish yet sympathetic mob-member lead character, the female shrink who treats him, a wife, mistresses and a club where the guys hang out. And Italian food everywhere, from the dining table to Satriales's to Artie Bucco's restaurant and back to the family fridge for reheats of leftovers.

The acclaimed HBO series even begot 'The Sopranos Family Cookbook.'

Could the magic food deity that poured a golden parmesan bounty of riches on 'The Sopranos' do the same for the Irish?
