

Pet Travel Statistics Reported for Second Quarter of 2006

2006-09-12

BringYourPet.com (www.bringyourpet.com), a leading pet friendly hotel and lodging directory continuously polls thousands of its Web site visitors, newsletter subscribers, and random households regarding their travel and purchase habits

All who participate in the surveys own at least one pet. A portion of the 2006 second quarter results are as follows:

œ 82% stay at designated pet-friendly hotels or lodging each year.

œ 75% take their pets with them when leaving town.

œ 64% would be more likely to lengthen their stay if given the opportunity to travel with their pets.

œ 85% travel with dogs.

œ 6% travel with cats.

œ 34% travel with dogs 50 pounds or more.

œ 39% say it is 'difficult to find pet-friendly lodging'.

œ 40% say their biggest grievance with pet-friendly lodging is it is difficult to find.
