

You Slept Where? - Ten of the World's Most Unusual Hotels

2006-10-11

With beds of ice and living rooms made from helicopters, the world's most unusual luxury hotels are trips in and of themselves.

When the Smith family decided to build an exclusive resort in the northwestern Connecticut hills, they wanted to create something different. Really different.

They wound up with Stonehenge in the bathroom, a beaver lodge in the bedroom and a 17,000-pound helicopter in the living room.

Sleeping in such oddball lodgings doesn't come cheap. When the new hotel, Winvian, opens in late fall, room rates will start at $1,450 per night.

In Pictures: Ten of the World's Most Unusual Hotels

External Source - For the complete article click here

Source - Forbes

This article comes from Hotel News Resource

<http://www.hotelnewsresource.com>

The URL for this story is:

<http://www.hotelnewsresource.com/article24541.html>

© 1998 - 2007 Nevistas and the author.

Brought to you by Hotel News Resource

Distribute your news on our Network

See what all the buzz is about at:

http://www.hotelnewsresource.com/Info-news_account_info.html