The Company also received approval from the Intercontinental Hotel Group to transfer the Holiday Inn franchise and expects to close on the transaction before month-end.

Hilliou, CEO of Full House Resorts, said, "the approval from the Nevada Gaming Commission and Gaming Control Board is a reaffirmation of the integrity and soundness of our directors and management team. It provides us the opportunity to expand into a long-term aspect of our business plan which is not limited by the length of a management contract. We expect Stockman's to provide a solid foundation for our continued expansion in local casino markets."
