

Vail Resorts, Inc. Names Stan Brown New Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of RockResorts and Vail Resorts Hospitality

2007-06-26

Vail Resorts, Inc. (NYSE:MTN) announced today that Stan Brown has been selected as the new executive vice president and chief operating officer of RockResorts and Vail Resorts Hospitality.

Brown will oversee and direct the company's entire lodging and hospitality division, reporting to Chief Executive Officer Rob Katz. Brown will start his new position on August 20, 2007, and will office in the company's new corporate headquarters in Broomfield, Colo.

"Stan's national and international hospitality experience is exactly what we need to continue delivering an outstanding guest experience throughout our lodging and hospitality division. His expertise in overseeing every aspect of resort hotel operations and seamlessly transitioning new properties into a branded group of hotels makes him the ideal candidate for this position," said Rob Katz, chief executive officer of Vail Resorts. "Having delivered outstanding performance in many of Marriott's best international resort properties, he brings an intimate knowledge of how to deliver high-end guest service to the vacation and business traveler. I am confident that Stan will continue to help drive our performance and growth in our lodging and hospitality division."

Brown has more than 26 years of hospitality experience in locations throughout the world including China, Hawaii, Australia and Saudi Arabia. He has been a part of ten different hotels and resorts, including five where he was general or resident manager.

Since 2006, he has been the vice president, China, Malaysia, Vietnam, Korea and the Philippines for Marriott International, Inc. located in Hong Kong. In this role, he was responsible for overseeing operations, sales and marketing, engineering, finance and human resources for 50 hotels across many of Marriott's brands including JW Marriott.

While Brown has most recently been in China, his hospitality leadership career began back in 1989 when he was appointed resident manager for Maui Marriott Resort in Lahaina, Maui. In 1994, he assumed the position of general manager for Jeddah Marriott in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, where he oversaw all operations and supervised 500 employees. This experience led to his appointment to general manager for Saigon Marriott in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam in 1996, where he managed pre-opening responsibilities for the 280-room hotel.

Further expanding his international scope, he was selected as the general manager for the Renaissance Sydney Hotel in 1998. Following his tenure in Sydney, Australia, he was the vice president of Pacific Islands and Japan for Marriott International, Inc. in Hawaii from 2000 to 2005, where he oversaw 23 hotels in Hawaii, Guam and Japan and supervised more than 7,000 employees.

Brown earned his bachelor's degree in hotel and restaurant management from Pennsylvania State University. He has a wife, Nancy, and two adult children, RJ and Stan Jr.
