

Top 10 oddball (theme) hotels

2007-08-20

Think a hotel is just a place to rest your head? Think again

Tired of staying at posh Four Seasons or Ritz-Carlton hotels? Looking for accommodations that are wonderful but slightly wacky?

You're in luck, whether you're visiting New England, Paris or the wilds of Costa Rica or Turkey: Each has an over-the-top hotel offering accommodations that will no doubt exceed your wildest dreams.

Settings range from the bucolic to the exotic: Among the former are the Pitcher Inn and Winvian, luxury hotels in Vermont and Connecticut developed by the same Merrill Lynch executive; guest rooms in each are unique, such as a cottage at Winvian built around a 56-foot-long decommissioned Coast Guard helicopter.
