

Homewood Suites By Hilton Opens Hotel In Maryland Heights, Missouri

2007-08-21

Represents Brand's third hotel in Missouri

Homewood Suites by Hilton, the national brand of upscale, all-suite, residential-style hotels, has opened the 104-suite Homewood Suites by Hilton hotel Maryland Heights, MO. The hotel is owned and managed by EQUIS Hospitality Management, LLC and represents another addition to the growing roster of more than 200 Homewood Suites by Hilton hotels nationwide.

'The new hotel's location, 5 from Lambert International Airport, makes our city an ideal market for an upscale, extended-stay hotel like Homewood Suites by Hilton,' said James Vavak, General Manager.

'Our hotel is designed for guests who stay for five or more nights, but is also perfect for short stays and families who need to feel more at home while they are traveling,' James Vavak said. 'We are the ideal place for those travelers who are away from home or the office for several days but still need to have a full kitchen, executive business center and complimentary high-speed Internet access.'

The Homewood Suites by Hilton St. Louis Riverport address is: 13639 Riverport Drive, Maryland Heights, MO 63043. The hotel is conveniently located near many local tourist attractions including shopping within a 5 mile radius and Verizon Wireless Amphitheater.

The three-story Homewood Suites by Hilton St. Louis Riverport features residential-style studio, one- bedroom and two-bedroom suites with fully equipped kitchens and spacious sleeping and living areas that are large enough for work, study, entertaining or relaxing.
