

Five-Star Hotel Nikko Wuxi Now Under Development in China

2007-10-23

A new five-star addition to the Nikko Hotels International group will be built along an old canal, a five- to 10- minute-drive from the center of Wuxi, in China.

Wuxi is an industrial city that has recently become a prime business location for foreign companies in China. It also has many sightseeing attractions.

Hotel Nikko Wuxi, owned by Chinese company Wuxi International Business Center Co., Ltd, a subsidiary of Wuxi Sushun Investment Group Co., Ltd. China, one of the largest real estate developers in Wuxi, will have 500 guest rooms in a 16-story building. The hotel's facilities will include Japanese, Chinese and buffet restaurants, a wine bar and banquet rooms.

Wuxi, with a population of over 4 million, is located along the lower Chang Jiang River (also called Yangtze River) in the eastern part of China, about 75 miles from Shanghai. Lake Taihu, one of China's largest fresh water lakes, is in the south of the city, Chang Jiang River is in the north and canals traverse the city. The canal cruises, historical monuments and temples, and the gardens and parks with magnificent views all help make Wuxi a draw for tourists.
