

Veteran Gaming Executive Kevin Kelley Joins Station Casinos as Chief Operating Officer

2007-12-20

Station Casinos, Inc. today announced that Kevin L. Kelley will be rejoining the Company as executive vice president and chief operating officer, effective January 7, 2008.

Kelley brings nearly thirty years of gaming experience to Station, including ten years with the Company, during which time he served in several leadership roles, including president of Westside Operations overseeing five hotel/casino properties. In addition to his ten years' of experience with the Company, Kelley's experience includes serving as president and chief operating officer of the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas and, most recently, serving as senior vice president for Las Vegas Sands Corp.

'I am thrilled to be returning to Station Casinos and excited to be part of the next chapter in the growth of the Company,' said Kelley. 'I know the Company well and have a great deal of respect for the business the Fertittas' have built and the team members that make it all possible.'

'I am very pleased to be welcoming Kevin back to the Company,' said Lorenzo J. Fertitta, vice chairman and president. 'Kevin has the experience, knowledge and leadership to help us achieve the significant goals we have set for the Company. He is a proven leader who has a track record of success at every level.'

Kelley succeeds William W. Warner in the role of executive vice president and chief operating officer. Warner recently resigned after serving with the Company for fourteen years in various leadership roles.
