

Rezidor announces the Radisson Resort Alushta - Ukraine

2008-02-13

A first unit of the property will welcome the first guests by the end of March 2008, followed by a second unit which is scheduled to be operational as from Q1 2010 on.

The Radisson Resort adds 213 rooms to the Rezidor system. Alushta is a well known Black Sea Resort located on the Crimean peninsula.

The first unit of the building is an existing 63-rooms-property which is currently being converted into a Radisson Resort. Further services of the hotel comprise a restaurant, a bar and 2 conference rooms. The second unit will be new built and add 150 rooms, 2 indoor restaurants, 1 outdoor grill restaurant, 1 lobby lounge bar, 8 meeting rooms, a multi-functional conference hall, an in- & outdoor pool and a car park to the complex. Both buildings will be connected to each other.

The Radisson Resort is perfectly located on an embankment of the seafront road in the city centre of Alushta and along the city's main promenade featuring a large selection of restaurants, cafés, bars and entertainment. Guests of the hotel enjoy breathtaking views of the Black Sea and the surrounding mountain landscape - the region of Alushta is known for its rocky terrain and vineyards.
