

Choice Hotels Elects Dr. Scott Renschler to Board of Directors

2008-02-18

Choice Hotels International (NYSE:CHH) today announced that its board of directors has elected Scott A. Renschler, Psy.D. (38) as a director.

"I am extremely pleased that Scott Renschler will be joining our board of directors," said Charles A. Ledsinger, Jr., vice chairman and chief executive officer, Choice Hotels International. "I look forward to his contributions to the board as Choice focuses on continued profitable growth of its core business and its share of the lodging market."

Dr. Renschler is a clinical psychologist in private practice. Since 1993, he has served as a member of the board of directors of Realty Investment Company, a privately-held real estate development and investment company, and Commonwealth Foundation, a non-profit organization whose mission is the education of disadvantaged youth. Dr. Renschler is a seven-year director of the Mental Wellness Foundation, a grant-making organization that supports mental health and educational services for at-risk or disadvantaged people.
