

Celebrate Munich's 850th Birthday with WORLDHOTELS

In 2008, Munich is celebrating its 850th birthday with a summer full of celebrations and events. The motto of the anniversary is 'Building Bridges', a celebration of the cities movement from a monastery to the hub of culture and high-technology that it is today.

The celebrations to be held throughout the summer of 2008 include theatrical shows, concerts, exhibitions in addition to the special events including the City Foundation Festival (June 14th-15th), an annual event that this year will be expanded to fully celebrate the birthday. The Old Town Ring Road Festival (July 19th - 20th) which is a musical and theatrical journey in time on the Old Town Ring Road and the Isar Bridge Festival (August 1st - 3rd), which incorporates the romantic elements of the city with a light installation on the bridge and music and dancing on the riverbanks.

Four of WORLDHOTELS' Munich hotels are offering special packages to celebrate the 850th anniversary, ranging from the Deluxe Collection member Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten Starnberg to the First Class Collection members Fleming's Hotel München-City, Fleming's Hotel München-Schwabing and the Eden Hotel Wolff.
