

Ken Shore Named New General Manager of the Snake River Lodge & Spa, A RockResort, in Jackson Hole, Wyoming

2008-03-04

---

RockResorts and Vail Resorts Hospitality announced today that Ken Shore has been chosen as the new general manager of the Snake River Lodge & Spa, A RockResort, in Jackson Hole, Wyoming. He will start his new position in April.

Shore began his hospitality career in 1991, as the general manager of the Doubletree Guest Suites in Tucson, Arizona. After nearly seven years at that position, he transitioned to general manager of the Hilton Hotel in Salt Lake City. In 2000, he accepted the position of general manager for The Yarrow Resort Hotel & Conference Center, where he was responsible for 181 guest rooms and 10,000 square feet of meeting and conference space. Before accepting the position of general manager for the Snake River Lodge & Spa, Shore had been the President of Career Education Corporation since 2001.

"We are proud to welcome Ken to the team. His background and experience in the hospitality industry made him a natural fit for this position," said Stan Brown, executive vice president and chief operating officer of RockResorts and Vail Resorts Hospitality. "I am confident that Ken will continue to help deliver an incredible guest experience at the Snake River Lodge & Spa in Jackson Hole, Wyoming."

Shore is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Par, New York.

This article comes from Hotel News Resource

<http://www.hotelnewsresource.com>

The URL for this story is:

<http://www.hotelnewsresource.com/article31410.html>

© 1998 - 2008 Nevistas and the author.

Brought to you by Hotel News Resource

Distribute your news on our Network

See what all the buzz is about at:

http://www.hotelnewsresource.com/Info-news\_account\_info.html