2008-03-24

Tinsley-Douglas brings over 18 years of communications experience to the position

AirTran Airways, a subsidiary of AirTran Holdings, Inc. (NYSE:AAI), announced today that Cynthia Tinsley-Douglas has joined the company as corporate communications manager. Tinsley-Douglas will be responsible for media relations and external communications on behalf of AirTran Airways and will be based in Atlanta.

A native of Owensboro, KY, Tinsley-Douglas brings 18 years of media and communications experience to AirTran Airways. She most recently served as founder and editor of Living Space Magazine, a home and lifestyles magazine. Prior to the magazine, Tinsley-Douglas spent 16 years as a television reporter and news anchor in several cities across the country including KXAS-TV in Dallas, WOIO/WUAB-TV in Cleveland and WXIA-TV in Atlanta. Tinsley-Douglas also hosted a home design show called "Creative Walls" on Home and Garden Television (HGTV). She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in public relations from Western Kentucky University.

"Cynthia brings an extensive amount of mass media and public relations knowledge to her position at AirTran Airways," said Tad Hutcheson, vice president of marketing and sales for AirTran Airways. "We are excited to add her communications expertise to our team."

AirTran Airways, a Fortune 1000 company, offers more than 700 affordable, daily flights to 58 U.S. destinations.
