

Burger King Launches New Angus Steak Burgers

2008-04-01

The new sandwiches beef up BURGER KING(R) restaurant's burger menu with steakhouse-quality ingredients, including A.1.(R) Thick & Hearty steak sauce, creamy baked potato topping and crispy onions.

Both sandwiches are made with a 100 percent Angus beef patty that is seasoned to perfection, made fresh to order and set atop a corn-dusted bakery bun.

The Steakhouse Burger features a flame-broiled steak burger topped with two slices of melted American cheese, A.1.(R) Thick & Hearty steak sauce, crispy onions, red ripe tomatoes, crisp lettuce and creamy mayonnaise on a premium bakery bun. The Steakhouse Burger will be available as a permanent menu item for the suggested retail price of $3.79.

On the Loaded Steakhouse Burger, crispy bacon and a loaded baked potato topping replace the tomatoes, lettuce and mayonnaise. It will be available as a permanent menu item for the suggested retail price of $4.19.

'Our new Steakhouse Burgers offer the indulgence of an entire steak dinner at a fraction of the cost,' said Russ Klein, president, global marketing, strategy and innovation, Burger King Corp. 'The patty is so big, it peeks out from under the bun. We are proud of our ability to provide premium, quality products to our guests at affordable prices.'
