Chelyabinsk is among the major industrial hubs of Russia - the new Radisson hotel will be situated at the northeast corner of Gagarin Park in the city centre, within an area which promises to become the elite re-development zone of Chelyabinsk, adjacent to the Central Stadium. The town also offers plenty of cultural activities such as the municipal jazz centre and a contemporary art centre. With the property location just to the east of the Ural Mountains, the area around the city offers many natural attractions.
