

Domino's Pizza Appoints New Chief Financial Officer: Wendy A. Beck

2008-04-29

Former CFO of Whataburger, Restaurant Industry Veteran Brings Strong Financial Background to Role

Domino's Pizza (NYSE:DPZ) announced today that Wendy A. Beck has joined its Leadership Council in the position of Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Her appointment is a result of an extensive national search process that has been underway since late 2007. Beck, 43, joins the company with a broad range of finance and restaurant experience. She was most recently Chief Financial Officer, Senior Vice President and Treasurer of Whataburger Restaurants based out of Corpus Christi, Texas.

Beck commented on her new position: "I'm excited to be a part of Domino's Pizza and its great management team, and I look forward to applying my finance and restaurant experience to help the company continue to expand its leadership position in markets throughout the world. During the selection process, I became convinced that the business model and culture of the company were a perfect fit for me."

Chairman and CEO David A. Brandon said, "I am very pleased to have Wendy join the Domino's team. She knows the food service business well, which will enable her to make significant contributions right from the start. I feel confident that our long and thorough search has yielded a talented executive with the highest ethical standards. Wendy will be a highly effective leader at Domino's for many years to come."

Whataburger Restaurants is a leading regional hamburger chain with more than 700 outlets in Texas and 10 other states, and over 18,000 employees. Founded in 1950 by the late Harmon Dobson, the chain has sales in excess of $1 billion. Harmon's family (including his son, Chairman and CEO Thomas Dobson) continues to own the company.

In her roles as CFO and, prior to that, Chief Accounting Officer at Whataburger from 2001 to the present, Beck was involved in many aspects of finance and the overall business, including the oversight of all finance and accounting functions, planning and execution of the Company's capital structure, tax planning, internal compliance, risk management and business reporting. She was also very involved with the management of their portfolio of restaurants.

Prior to Whataburger, she gained public-company restaurant experience at Checkers Drive-In Restaurants (which includes Rally's Hamburgers), a chain with over 800 units in 28 states. Checkers was traded on the NASDAQ under the symbol CHKR from 1991 - 2006. Beck held finance positions of increasing responsibility there from 1993 to 2001, culminating in the position of CFO, Vice President and Treasurer. Her experience in finance - particularly tax - also includes six years at Lincare Holdings (from 1987-1993), a national home health care company traded on the NASDAQ under the symbol LNCR.

A native of Florida, Beck holds a BS in Accounting from the University of South Florida, and has been a Certified Public Accountant since 1992. She is a member of the Board of Directors of the Women's FoodService Forum. Beck and her family will soon be relocating to the Ann Arbor, Michigan area, where Domino's Pizza is headquartered.

This article comes from Hotel News Resource

<http://www.hotelnewsresource.com>

The URL for this story is:

<http://www.hotelnewsresource.com/article32341.html>

© 1998 - 2008 Nevistas and the author.

Brought to you by Hotel News Resource

Distribute your news on our Network

See what all the buzz is about at:

http://www.hotelnewsresource.com/Info-news_account_info.html