

Boston Lodging Shows off Hometown with Fun Boston Vacation Packages

The Embassy Suites Boston - Logan Airport Hotel, a popular choice for accommodations near Boston Logan Airport, invites guests to enjoy an historic vacation this summer with a selection of enticing packages designed to show off the best in the city.

As vacation spots all over the country burn up in the summer heat, Boston averages a cozy high-70s, perfect weather for exploring this enchanting city.

For the animal-lovers out there, the Boston Airport Hotel is offering an exclusive package with two adult tickets to the New England Aquarium, one the most beloved public aquariums in the country. The New England Aquarium played a prominent role in improving and modernizing the public aquarium and today houses an incredible display of several different jellyfish as its most popular exhibit. The package also includes tickets to the on-site IMAX Theatre. For more information, click here.

Of course, there's no better way to experience Boston than from one of the famed Duck Tours. On this unforgettable tour, guests board an authentic WWII amphibious vehicle for a pleasing drive amongst the most historic sites in Boston, only this tour ends with a surprising splash into Charles River. During the trip, a professional Chicago historian entertains the group with fascinating stories of Chicago's past. The Logan Airport hotel's Boston Duck Tour package comes with two tickets.
