

Author picks coolest hotel rooms to stay

2008-07-09

Fifty selections can satisfy rock stars and luxury travelers alike

From rooms decked out with a soundstage to concierges who can arrange impromptu tango lessons, trend spotter and author Bill Tikos has roamed the globe to find hotels that offer a unique, and luxurious, experience.

Tikos' book, "The World's Coolest Hotel Rooms," features more than 50 rooms ranging from those that fulfill rock star fantasies to others that elevate the meaning of luxury with sumptuous day beds in lush, secluded gardens with private pools.

"We're not just looking for a bed any more we want an experience. Hotels are really catering for an experience rather than just an overnight stay," said Tikos, who writes a weekly syndicated column and runs Web site thecoolhunter.net.
