This private luxury hotel, a former 19th century hunting lodge - set in the idyllic splendour of a 100-acre woodland park, is located in the glorious Burgundy countryside close to Dijon, France.

The chateau offers guests a wide choice of activities: perfect your swing on the golf par 3 driving range, play a game of tennis, relax at the swimming-pool with jet-stream, the sauna or solarium or work up in the fitness-centre.

You can also make fabulous excursions in a horse-drawn carriage, a Rolls-Royce or in a private plane, sample wines in the local wine cellars or speed up to Paris for the day in the famous TGV, a high-speed train making up to 210 miles an hour.

Last but not least, a stay at Chateau la Chassagne is perfect to be combined with an unforgettable boat cruise along the charming landscapes of the Burgundy canal.

With the private airfield situated absolutely close to Chateau la Chassagne, it is the first address for private pilots to fly into .
