2008-07-22

The new 89-room Country Inn & Suites By Carlson Rochester-Brighton has opened its doors for business at 797 East Henrietta Road in Rochester, N.Y.

"We're very excited to bring the Country Inns & Suites By Carlson concept to this region," said Steve Mogck, executive vice president of Franchise Operations for Country Inns & Suites By Carlson. "All employees will participate in the Country Inns & Suites 'Be Our Guest' service training program, to ensure consistent delivery of quality customer service at our hotels."

"This new Country Inn & Suites By Carlson is a wonderful addition to our community. We are confident that this recognized brand and lodging concept will help us grow and prosper in the future," said Christine Pedrick, general manager of the Country Inn & Suites By Carlson Rochester-Brighton. The owner of the hotel is Brighton Lodging Associates, LLC.

The hotel features an indoor pool, whirlpool and fitness room. Other amenities include a complimentary hot continental breakfast and free fax and copy service. The hotel offers a variety of guest rooms including standard rooms, one bedroom suites and Jacuzzi rooms. All rooms feature complimentary wireless high-speed Internet access, hair dryer, 32" flat panel television, microwave and refrigerator. This Country Inn & Suites property is conveniently located near two golf courses, a tennis court, several shopping centers and various attractions. Monroe City Airport is located 7 miles from the hotel with complimentary scheduled shuttle service available.

Country Inns & Suites offers locations that feature traditional architecture and sophisticated residential interior design with hardwood flooring, lobby fireplace and front porch. Each hotel welcomes guests with traditional furnishings that blend rich woods and a contemporary color palate throughout the hotel.
