An exciting new online job board is set to transform the employment patterns of both jobseekers and recruiters in all sectors of the global shipping industry.

Saltwaterjobs.com will expertly satisfy a huge demand in recruiting within the cruise line, super yacht and cargo ship industry. This is a first for the industry and the impact of such invigoration will take affect across the globe.

With an exclusive industry focus, Saltwaterjobs.com will connect prime candidates from across the world with their most suitable job at sea. All positions on board will be available through the one portal. Therefore, experienced jobseekers from the deck and engine department to food & beverage, hotel management and more will all find their ideal position through the new job board Saltwaterjobs.com.

Based in Melbourne, the Saltwaterjobs.com team has a combined industry experience of over 20 years. Wendy Franks is Founder and Managing Director of this independent company and is best qualified to reinvigorate the industry having recently worked in personnel management and marine recruitment with onboard experience on both cruise ships and super yachts.

'We are the veritable pioneers for recruitment in this industry as we are the very first to create a job board that will bring together employers and jobseekers of the cruise line, super yacht and cargo industry on a global scale' she said at the launch of the new website.

'The ongoing requirements of the industry are extremely diverse as the scope of the different sectors is so great. The industry clearly appeals to qualified senior command crew, and in contrasted addition the finest Sommeliers, Hotel Managers and Chefs are sought after as well. We have created one perfect central place for jobseekers across a vast array of professions to find their ideal or dream position on board' said Ms Franks.
