

Sandman Hotel Group Announces the Development of a new Sandman Signature Hotel in Kamloops, British Columbia

2008-08-07

Sandman Hotel Group announced the development of a new Sandman Signature Hotel in Kamloops, British Columbia. Construction will start this Fall on the 150-room Hotel located in downtown Kamloops across from the Interior Savings Centre, home of the Kamloops Blazers.

The 4.5-star Sandman Signature Hotel in Kamloops will feature a Cucumber Café serving fresh and healthy meals throughout the day, as well as the popular Shark Club - Sports, Bar & Grill.

Sandman Hotel Group is also developing an additional 200-room Sandman Hotel in the Aberdeen area of the city, which will bring the number of Sandman locations within the Kamloops area to three.

Tom Gaglardi, CEO of Sandman Hotel Group and President of the Kamloops Blazers commented, 'With the City's vision to become the tournament capital of Canada playing host to sporting tournaments, cultural events, training camps and national and international competitions, investing in the region makes sense. We are thrilled to be a partner in the long term development through our hotel, restaurant and hockey operations. With the additional Hotels, we will also be supporting the City's revitalization plan for a vibrant and energetic downtown'.

Offering a fresh, contemporary design, the Sandman Signature collection of hotels and resorts feature added conveniences such as class-leading rooms, concierge and valet service, business centres, health clubs and fitness facilities. The new Sandman Signature Hotel Kamloops will add to the existing two Sandman Signature properties currently located at Toronto International Airport and Vancouver International Airport. Four additional Sandman Signature Hotels & Resorts are in development in Prince George, British Columbia, Edmonton South, Alberta, Langley, British Columbia and Markham, Ontario.

Founded in 1967, Sandman Hotel Group operates as a network of sister hotel and restaurant companies under the Northland Properties Corporation. Based in Vancouver, the company currently has 35 properties from British Columbia to Quebec with over 5,000 employees.
