

Farmer Boys Restaurants Opens 61st Location in El Centro

2008-08-13

Farmer Boys Restaurants, the Southern California icon known for its large platters of farm fresh, made-to-order entrees, has opened its 61st location in El Centro, California.

"Farmer Boys Restaurants is a Southern California staple," says President Ken Clark. "Our continued expansion reflects the increased demand for our delicious food and relaxing atmosphere."

The newest Farmer Boys restaurant is located at 1532 Cruickshank in El Centro and is owned by first-time Farmer Boys franchisees, Dick Andersen and Steve and Kim Gerdo.

Known throughout Southern California for its award-winning hamburgers, freshly battered onion rings and crisp zucchini, Farmer Boys recently debuted two new fast and fresh favorites: Chicken Salad Wraps and Iced Lattes.
