

Century Casinos Announces Grand Opening of Extension of Casino in Warsaw on October 1, 2008
2008-10-01

Century Casinos, Inc. (Nasdaq: CNTY, Vienna Stock Exchange) announced today the grand opening of the extension of the casino at the Marriott Hotel in Warsaw, the flagship casino of Casinos Poland, on October 1, 2008.

The casino has been extended by almost 300 m², increasing the total gaming floor to approximately 750 m², now offering 28 gaming tables and 30 slot machines including one automatic multi-roulette machine. The new area will also delight visitors by providing access to a comfortable lounge as well as to a stage, which will serve as a venue for concerts, shows, recitals and other kinds of live entertainment.

The highlight of the grand opening of the extended casino will be the Mega Jackpot Party with attractions ranging from live music to special promotions and competitions for all guests.

Century Casinos holds a 33.3% stake in Casinos Poland Ltd. since March 2007. Casinos Poland is the market leader in Poland with a 50% share of the Polish casino market. The company owns and operates seven casinos in international four and five star hotels and one slot casino throughout Poland.
