Fog Cutter Capital Group Inc.'s (OTCBB: FCCG) Fatburger unit has announced the grand opening of two new franchise locations. The greater Chicago market now has its first Fatburger, located in the suburb of Orland Park. A second location in the Chicago area is planned to open before year end at 95th and Western.

Also opening today is Cincinnati's first Fatburger, located in the community of Oakley, Ohio. With the opening of these two locations, the number of Fatburger restaurants now stands at 92.

'We are pleased that we are increasing our presence in the mid-west and we are confident that Fatburger will soon become the favorite of burger-lovers in that region,' said Andrew Wiederhorn, Chairman of the Board.

The new Fatburger locations will provide approximately 30 new jobs in each community.
