

ARTEH(R): Sanctuary SPA at Monte do Casal

2008-10-15

On the 16th of October 2008 will take place the Sanctuary SPA inauguration, at Monte do Casal, an ARTEH(R) Hotel in Estoi in the Algarve, Portugal.

The Sanctuary SPA is a heaven of tranquility that recreates with all its architecture a meditative and contemplative environment, where the water is the source for the inspiration and the main element.

The SPA features one relaxation room, three treatment rooms by the lake including one suite for couples. There is also the gazebo for treatments on the lake.

The treatments are exclusive of Elemis and Sundāri renowned brands that use oriental techniques, focused on health and well-being.

About Monte do Casal

Monte do Casal is nestled in an area of quiet countryside in the Algarve, quite close to the historical village of Estoi, just a few kilometres from Faro International Airport.

This hotel with customised service was born from an attractive 18th century country house, recently refurbished, removed from the hectic bustle of the Algarve's main cities and protected by lovely gardens with palm trees and bougainvilleas.

The interior spaces are comfortable and elegant, in the rooms the small private terraces where breakfast can be served and their views that extend from the garden into the sea are worthy of special mention.

At the award winning restaurant contemporary French inspired cuisine with local and oriental influences can be savoured, and on some evenings live music is the perfect accompaniment.

Relaxed or busy days can be spent, the choice is entirely yours. Enjoy the sun by the swimming pools or practice on the hotel's putting green. Explore the endless beaches of the coast or the famous Algarve golf clubs. Find either the tranquil or the lively Algarve and know that at Monte do Casal you will be well received.

Revitalize your energies at the Sanctuary SPA in Monte do Casal, with ARTEH(R).
